WARWICK. EARL OF LEYCESTER'S HOSPITAL

LL6384

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Earl of Leycester's Hospital and West Gate. This hospital was originally the hall belonging to two united guilds, established in Richard II.'s reign. After the dissolution of the monasteries the building passed to the town authorities, and under Elizabeth it was deeded by the Corporation to Robert, Earl of Leicester, who made of it an asylum for twelve indigent men.
